FOREWORD

We, the Annual Staff, take pride in presenting to you, the student body, our finished product, the '65 OWL. In looking through its pages we hope that it will bring back many memories.

Our purpose was to capture the various phases of the school year. To many people, it was basically the same as any high school year, but to the students of 1965, it was different since it was we who made it.

May this always hold treasured memories for each and every one of you.

Sincerely,
The Annual Staff

DEDICATION

It is an honor and a privilege to dedicate this, the '65 OWL to Mr. Walter Nicholson and to Mr. Herman McIlwain.

They are loved and admired by the Student Body. As custodians and friends of the students they are always ready and willing to help.

"Mr. Nick" and "Mr. Mac," we hope this will serve as a small token of appreciation for all that both of you have done for HCHS.

IN MEMORY OF

WILLIAM G. AKIN

God calls our loved ones, but we lose not wholly
What He hath given
They live on earth, in thought and deed, as truly
As in His Heaven.

John Greenleaf Whittier

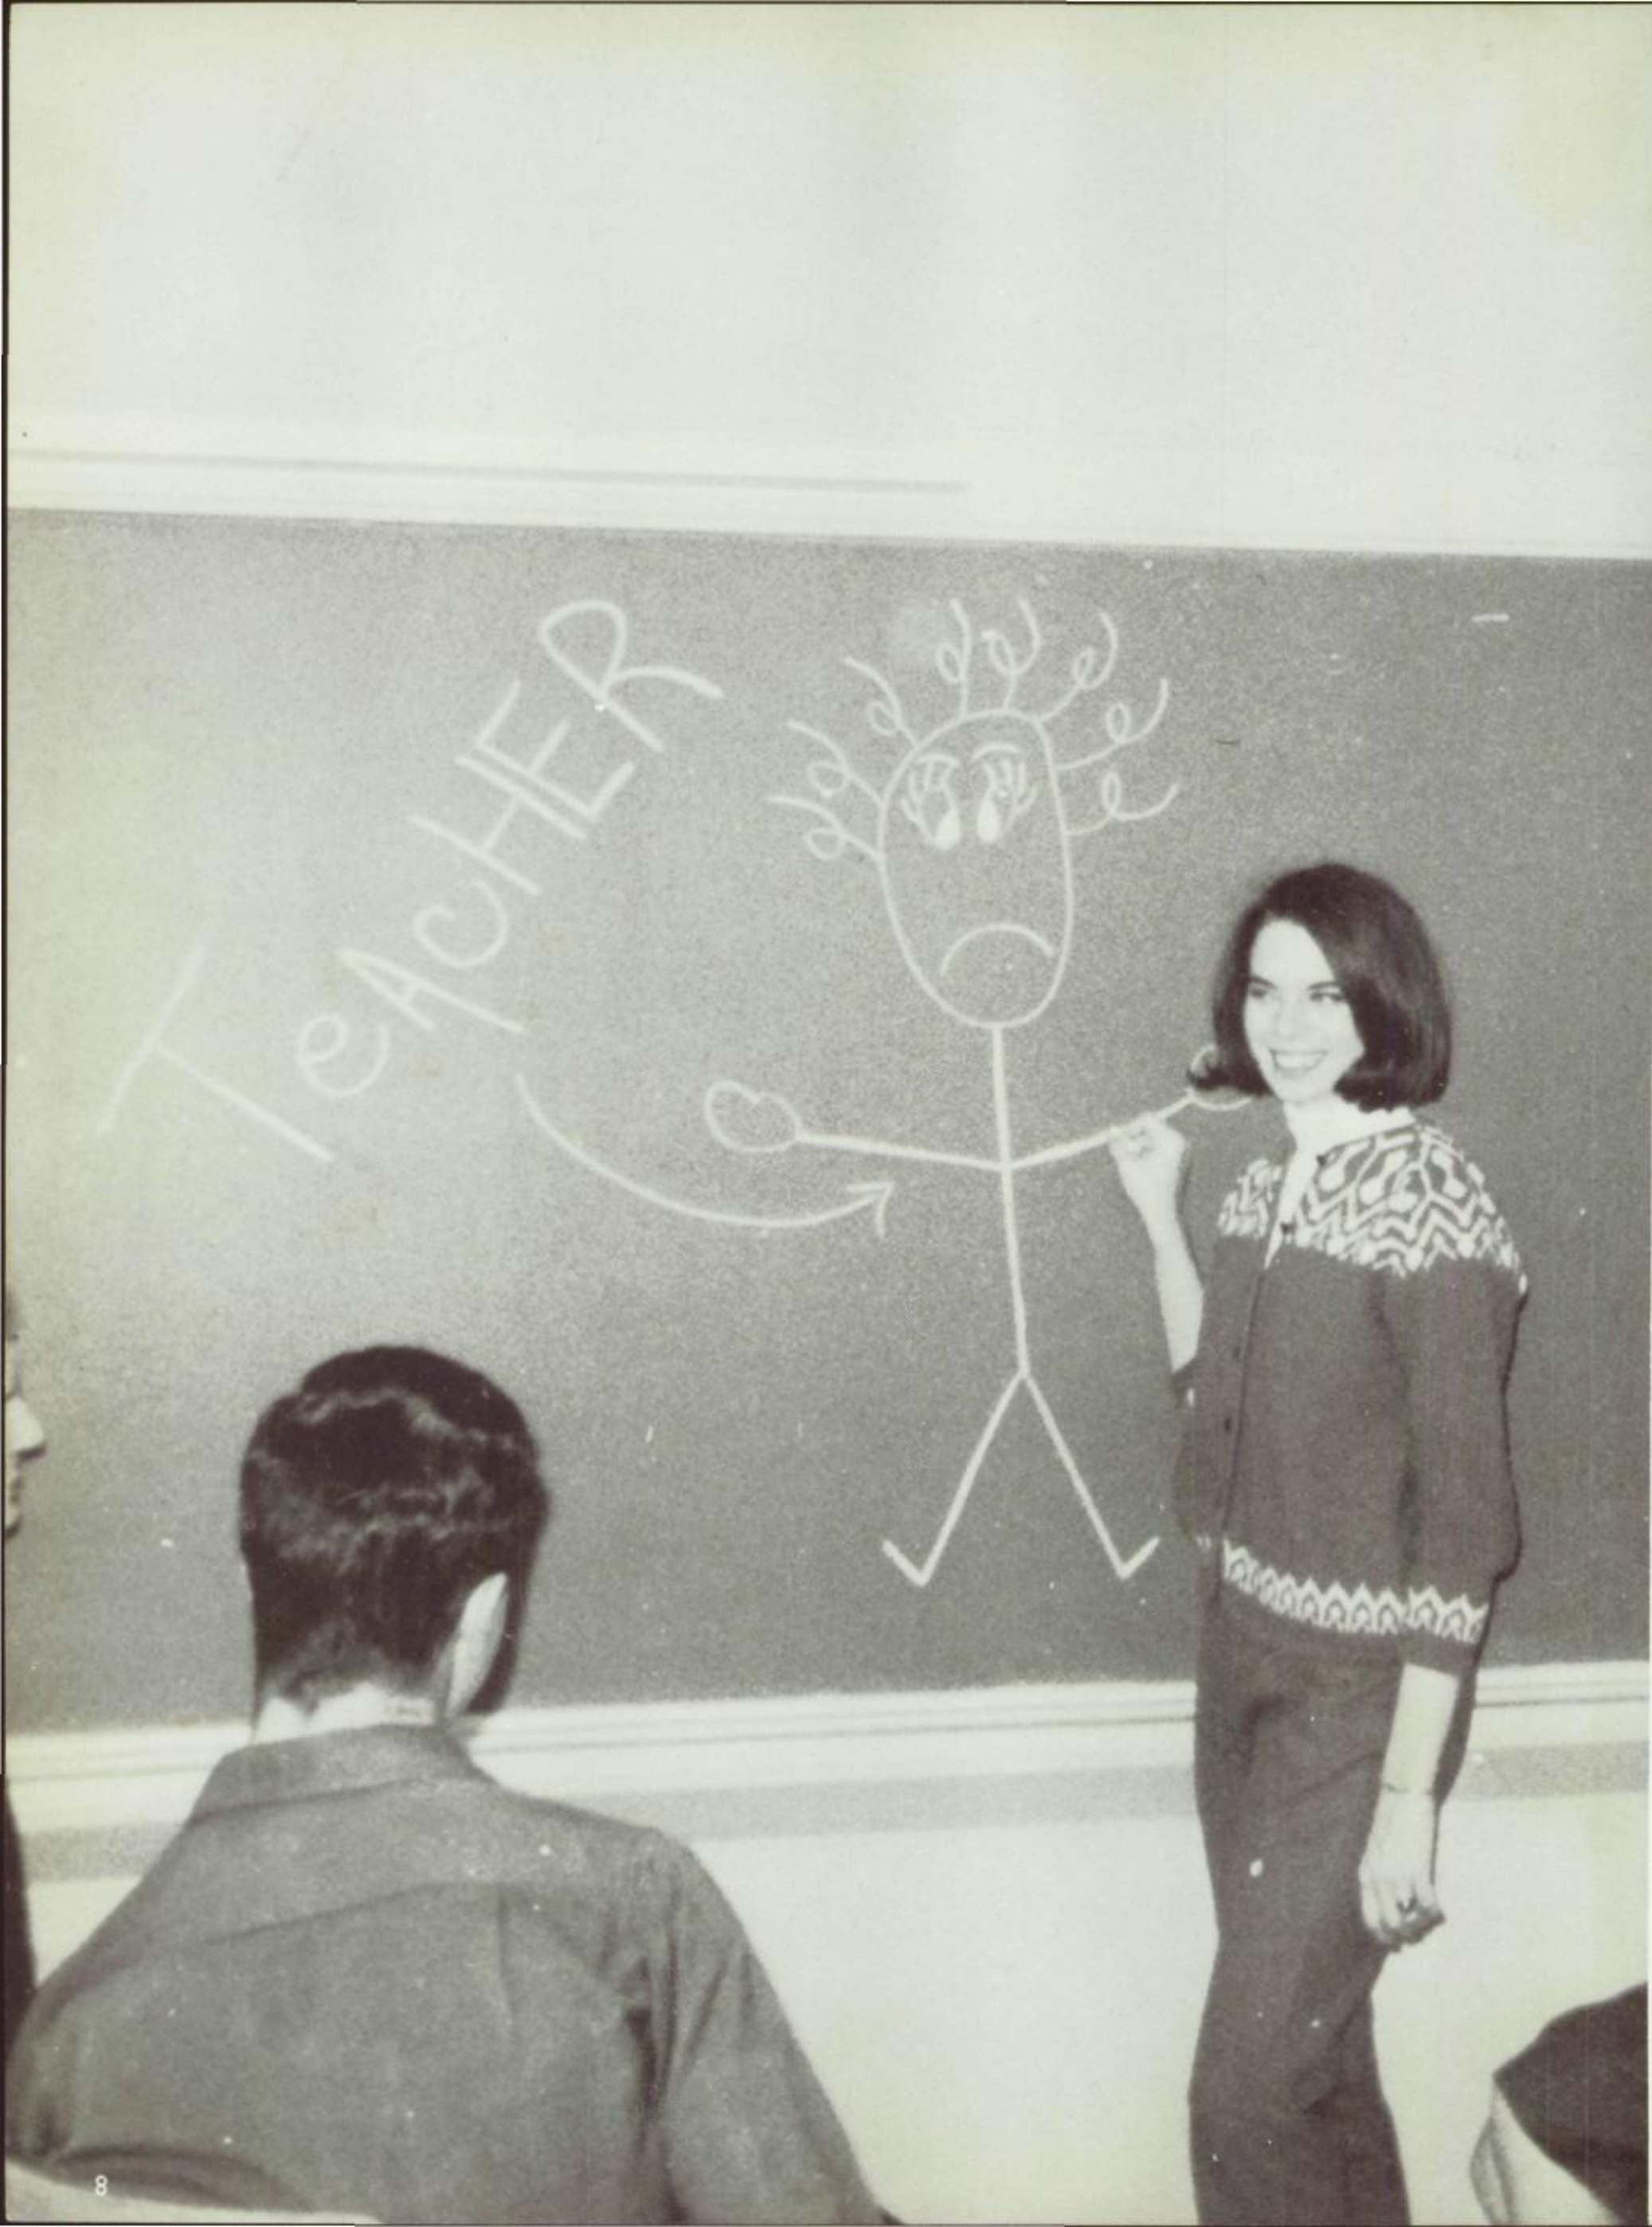

IN MEMORIAM

We the students and faculty of the Hale Center Public School wish to dedicate these pages of our yearbook to the memory of a beloved friend and colleague.

By precept, he showed us a love for learning.

By example, he taught us courtesy, kindness, friendliness, and a deep respect for our fellowman.

At the risk of sounding trite, we can think of no other comment more fitting; "He was a man; to know him was to love him."

The Senior Class of 1965 participated in many activities throughout the school year. Their enthusiastic efforts resulted in a new time high for magazine sales. The Senior play "Onions in the Stew" was a great success and was enjoyed by all who saw it. Much of the senior success was due to the help and advice given by their dedicated sponsors, Mrs. Perkins and Mr. Baxter.

5 Wins, 4 Losses, 1 Tie

The Owls had a successful season this year. They didn't quite make district, but you couldn't tell it by the way they played. Knowing they couldn't win district they went ahead and won their last two games, showing much spirit and fight. There are only five graduating lettermen so the coaches are looking forward to an even better season next year.

SEASON RECORD

The Hale Center Owls finished the district race in third place by battling an even 500. For the first time in five years, there was not a district tournament, and, as a result, the winners of the round Robin play were district champions.

Playing in three tournaments at Kress, Abernathy, and Hale Center, the Owls won consolation twice and were champions at Hale center. Losing their first game at Kress to Quitaque, the Owls went on to beat Bovina and Hart to win Consolation. At Abernathy, they lost to Frenship, then beating Cotten Center and Olton, they again won consolation. At Hale Center, they first defeated Lockney, then Kress to reach the finals. Having to play an overtime to defeat Silverton 58-57, they were presented with the first place trophy. J. D. Davis was on the all-tournament team at Kress, and Mark Laney and Gil Hollingsworth were all-tournament selections at Hale Center.

The Student Council is composed of class presidents, two representatives from each class, and all presidents of organizations. They have presented at least one assembly every month. The assemblies come from a wide range of fields, from ventriloquism to the presentation of three convicts.

President Ken DeJarnett and Vice-President Mark Laney look with an approving eye over the new bulletin board which the Student Council presented to the school. The Student Council is planning to either buy a trampoline for the P.E. Department or help to enlarge the present press-box. They are going to have an "Owl" painted in the center of the gym floor. With the help of Mr. Barton, they have completed many projects including purchasing a bulletin board for the school.

OWL STAFF

Meeting deadlines, working overtime, and constant worrying are all a part of being in Journalism Class. Ingenuity, creativity, originality, and willingness to work are a must, because this class has the responsibility of creating the '65 Owl and the Owl's Tale.

This group consists of - Seated: Mrs. John Shaw, advisor; Cheryl Faver, Paula Garner, Rolinda Rowell, and Kay Law. Standing are Helen Daugherty, Jan Alley, Mark Laney, Lyndon Hardin, and Roland Moore.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Jennie Rose Powell FTA was reorganized in Hale Center High School under the leadership of Mrs. Ann Nelson. Though they got started a little late in the year, the chapter was very active. One of the most interesting meetings was centered around an interview of Mrs. Powell about the rewards to be gained from teaching. Radio station KSEL carried an hour program that featured the Hale Center FTA Chapter. They are hoping to send a delegate to the State Convention in Houston on March 12, 13. The club plans to pay all of their expenses. Also they plan to observe Teaching Career Month in April. The Future Teachers in Hale Center have been very helpful to the teachers by substituting for them on various occasions.

They meet once a month, having business, refreshments, and then entertainment. Among their various activities Los Vivarachos presented a Christmas program to the entire school. It was completely in Spanish. The play depicted a Mexican home where the children were visited by first Santa Claus, Quexacotal, an Aztec God, and finally Los Reyes Magos (the three wise men). The members made as their semester project a bulletin board each month. They were completely in Spanish and on such subjects as Don Quixote, the Spanish missions in Texas, and Los Vivarachos. The second semester their project was the translation of certain fairy tales into Spanish.

LIBRARIANS

FINE ARTS CLUB

The Fine Arts Club has a membership of 67. It has followed its purpose - to develop all phases of the humanities - by introducing its members to such outstanding programs as Shakespeare's "Hamlet" and "Merry Wives of Windsor." Two workshops were attended. One was presented by the Department of Speech at West Texas State University, and the other was a rehearsal of Thornton Wilder's "The Skin of Our Teeth." The most exciting event they attended was a production of the Broadway Musical "Oliver" presented by Civic Tubuock. The Fine Arts Club has accomplished a most difficult job - exposing the Hale Center students to as many cultural activities as possible. The group also enjoyed hearing the Christy Minstrels and attending a production of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town."

These are the officers and advisors of the Fine Arts Club. They are, Front Row: Steven Rogers - Program advisor, Melynn Trimmier and Marian Dixon - Co-Chairmen, Jim Boyd - Program Advisor, and Jan Alley - Secretary; Back Row: Mrs. John Shaw, Mrs. Ann Nelson, Mrs. Beverly Perkins, and Miss Connie Lemond, all advisors.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Ann Nelson, they presented a play with an unusual twist. "The Bad Children," based on the fairy tale "Hansel and Gretel," was presented one afternoon to South Ward, that night to the public, the next afternoon to the High School and also the junior high and North Elementary. Everyone in the Speech Club had a hand in presenting the play.

The last Friday of each month was reserved for the monthly meeting. Refreshments and entertainment were prepared by members of the club.
